For Parents

Mary was a young, simple Jewish woman who recognized herself as a maidservant of the Lord and willingly accepted God's plan for her (Luke 1:38). What was that plan? She would be the mother of Jesus!

And so it was. In the little town of Bethlehem, Mary brought forth her firstborn Son, wrapped Him in swaddling clothes, and laid Him—not with kings and royalty—but in a manger used to feed animals, because there were no other rooms for them to stay in (Luke 2:7). His birth was announced to simple shepherds staying out in the nearby fields (Luke 2:8). And the announcement was spectacular. First, an angel of God appeared to the shepherds with the glory of the Lord shining all around. The angel announced that a Savior, who is Christ the Lord, was born. The shepherds then witnessed a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men!" (Luke 2:9–14). Immediately, the shepherds made their way to Bethlehem and found Mary, Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger just as the angel had said (Luke 2:15–16).

This was a humble, earthly beginning for the great Redeemer King—the incarnate God Himself—unlikely for the Creator of the universe! Yet Scripture assures us in many places that this humble babe was in fact God. The Apostle John, by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, revealed Jesus Christ as God. And John tells us in his Gospel that "the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father" (John 1:14). The Word was God and the Word became flesh. The Word was Jesus Christ, the promised Messiah and Savior.

Jesus was fully God and fully man. Though He was God, He willingly gave up the heavenly honor, glory, and rights that were His. He took the form of a bondservant and came to earth as a man. He lived in humility and finally humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death on the Cross (Philippians 2:6–8).

Suppose your friend tells you that he does believe the Bible, but he also believes what he reads in all the Christian books. After all, they are Christians, too. And they must read the Bible. What would you say?

We need to be very careful who we listen to and where we go for the truth. There are a lot of people who write books and teach about God, but that doesn't mean that everything they say is right! We need to be sure we read the Bible for ourselves and know that what we believe comes from the Bible. Only God and His Word are perfect; men make mistakes all the time. We should trust our pastors and teachers, for sure, but God has the final say. If something we see or hear doesn't seem right, we are responsible to find out what God says in His Word and believe that.

LIVE the Word

What if you heard your friends say Jesus wasn't God, He was only God's son? What could you say?

That can be very confusing. But if you study your Bible, you will find the answer! You see, the Bible DOES say Jesus is God's only begotten Son. That's true. But it also says that Jesus is God. God is three Persons—what we call the Trinity. There is God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. When Jesus became a man, we see Him as God and the Son of God. Jesus Himself said that He and the Father are ONE! The Bible tells us that Jesus was in the beginning with God, and that Jesus IS God! Our minds may have trouble understanding that Jesus can be God AND God's Son. But if we believe the Bible, we must believe ALL of it. And the Bible tells us that Jesus is God, the Father is God, the Holy Spirit is God, and together they make one God.
